

Eye Spy with my Rainbow Eye

Eye Spy

with my red eye,
crimson chillies arranged in rows the sour juice of ripe raspberries and the London Routemaster trundling forward

Eye Spy

with my orange eye, Nemo's gentle fins
swimming serenely in the water life vests stacked up and Garfield
lazily devouring lasagne

Eye Spy

with my yellow eye,
a rubber duck
calmly floating in foamy water Pacman escaping frantically and an infuriated wasp buzzing violently in the sunlight

Eye Spy

with my green eye
the flag of Pakistan
billowing and fluttering proudly in the breeze a crisp dollar bill straight out of the printing press and a very hungry caterpillar munching quietly on lime leaves

Eye spy

with my blue eye
the ripple of the Ganges a cuddly Smurf
and a peacock's feather flapping softly

Eye Spy

with my indigo eye
a piece of lapis
carefully selected from the rest and handfuls of blueberries some squashed, some mashed

Eye Spy

with my violet eye, aubergines with vast, green stems and a lightning struck sky painted purple
