

Greenbank News

Week beginning 8th June 2020

Hello to all of our wonderful Greenbank families- I hope this newsletter continues to find everyone well and healthy.

Next week – week beginning Monday 15th June – our school will continue to be open only for the children of key workers and children from vulnerable families.

The current advice from Steve Reddy, Director of Children's and Young People's Services is that schools should postpone the wider reopening to the children in Year 6 on 15th June. If you did not read the letter from Mrs. Wrigley this week, you can read it here:

We will continue to keep you updated and look forward to seeing more of you when it is safe to return.

Home Learning

We want to re-assure you that children who are learning at home are being offered the same work to complete as children who are in school and we are working hard to ensure that no one is at a disadvantage. Home Learning projects continue to be uploaded to class pages by our wonderful class teachers, and you may also collect paper copies from the school office if you prefer.

If you are not able to access your child's Home Learning Project online, or collect it from school, please do get in touch with us. If you need extra resources, reading books or support, please let us know- we are here to help.

If you need to contact the school for an enquiry, please continue to use

Thank you, as ever, for your continued support.

This Week's Theme

This week's learning theme has been Nature, and we hope you have enjoyed the range of learning activities provided. Next week's theme is Special People. Home Learning Projects will be available on Class Pages on Friday evening.

Home Learning Email Addresses

We are really sorry that we have had technical difficulties with the activation of our new home learning email addresses this week! We are working very hard to fix this problem as soon as we can and will notify you on Parent App when they are fully up and running! In the meantime, please continue to share your work on Twitter!

More teaching staff are now in school, so they may not be able to reply to your emails immediately. Class teachers will check the emails as regularly as they can and will aim to get back to you as soon as possible.

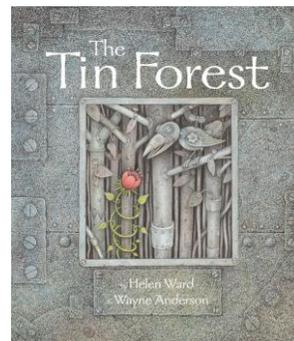

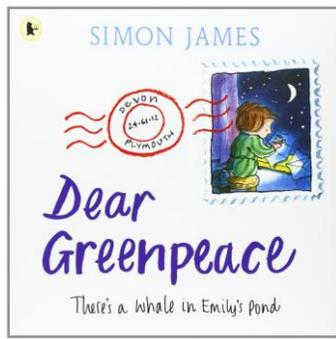

It's important that we are able to keep in touch with you, so if you have recently changed your home or mobile telephone numbers, please advise the School Office so that we ensure that we have your correct details.

Please ensure you check our Parent App notifications and News section on our website for all our latest updates.

Inside School This Week

It has been another lovely week in school and it has been wonderful to see a few more of our children back this week. Our 'bubbles' of children and staff have been taking part in lots of activities, all based on the theme of Nature.

We have been exploring some Nature-themed books this week too-we hope you've enjoyed them!

We took advantage of the dry weather to do some gardening in the playground.

Urban den building on the playground.

Playtime!

Mr Prescott even joined Oti Mabuse in leading a dance routine.

Some play-dough fun!

We made our own Tin Forests
